Foreword

From the first day of school to final exams 1968-69 at LCHS was a memorable year. Eager to renew old friendships, but not so eager to resume classes, students returned from the "shortest summer ever" to begin the school year. Freshmen and their initiation created confusion but it subsided and the year began to progress smoothly. The days flew by, and with them many experiences. All students remember the wild excitement of winning district, the casual moments of conversation with friends, and the hours of study both in and out of classes.

As the school year drew to a close, the students began looking ahead to future years, but memories of the past were not pushed aside. When phrases such as "Remember how we used to . . ." occur in conversations, the 1968-69 school year at Lyndon High School will be relived many times.

Lyndon Community

Dedication

A school building is constructed of steel and cement, strong and permanent, but it is designed to accommodate an ever-changing flow of students. During the past eight years, busses emptied their loads each morning and people streamed into the hallways and classrooms. To the rhythm of bells, students hurried in and out of the rooms and corridors and finally back to the busses, leaving the building empty.

As each individual forms a part of the mass, so each personality has contributed to the whole of Lyndon Community High School. The students of LCHS will be leaving, but with them they will take their individual dreams and thoughts and memories, many of which have been molded in the halls and classrooms of LCHS.

In leaving, we dedicate the 1969 Wildcat; a collection of the people and events that filled the school's last year; to Lyndon Community High School.

The Class of 69

High School

Principal's Message

An era has passed—that of the Lyndon High School. Historically this is the result of consolidation and mergers of smaller schools into a larger one; and once again in an effort to enhance the educational opportunities of the community, the Lyndon school district has consolidated with neighboring districts. Lyndon High School has contributed more than a half century of service to the people in the Lyndon area. It has been instrumental in molding the lives of many citizens who have gone on to take their places in the mainstream of our society. There is no doubt that Lyndon High School will continue to linger in the minds and hearts of the people, as it should. These memories are a tribute to its worth as an institution. May the people of this community maintain their loyalty and support their schools in the future as they have in the past. This would be the finest possible memorial to Lyndon High School.

Seniors Face Present and Future

During their last year at LCHS, the class of '69 faced both the present and the future. As seniors, these students readied themselves for the new life which would be theirs after graduation. If college-bound, they prepared for college life; they chose the school which would become their new home in the fall; they filled out applications and waited anxiously for their return; they complained about the term paper for English.

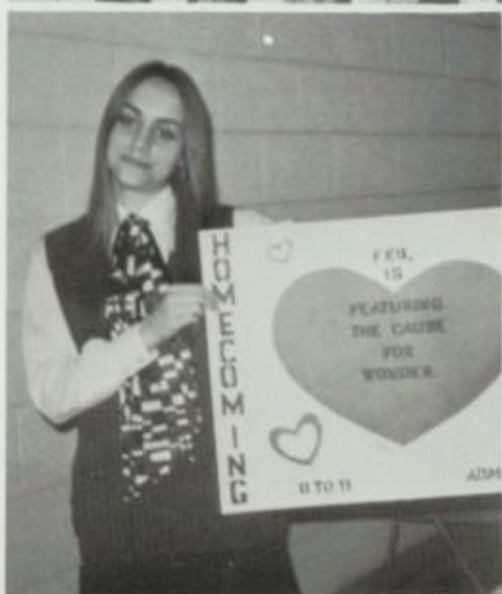

Yet, in the midst of this concern for the future, the Class of '69 found time to face the present. Like all seniors before them, they elected class officers: Bill Wiersema, president; Gary Johnson, Vice President; and Mary Hunt, Secretary-Treasurer; and met with their advisor, Mr. Heaton. The seniors began the year by selling a record breaking amount of advertising to sponsor their yearbook. They also sponsored two dances, sold candy, and presented the 3-act play, "Who Killed Aunt Caroline?", which was a great success.

After their many activities they took some time off for a trip to Chicago—their last activity as a class. While there they went shopping, visited Old Town, went to the stage play "Funny Girl", and watched the Cubs wallopp the Giants 8 to 0.

Like all seniors they could barely wait for graduation, but before it came each traditional LCHS activity held special meaning for them. Each sad occasion became sadder; each joyous one, more joyous, because the Class of '69 was ending its years at LCHS.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Juniors Grow as Class And as Individuals

In the 1968-69 school year, the Class of '70 played a vital role in LHS life. As a class, this year's juniors became important to the school by having a Student Council president elected from their ranks. They performed various functions such as selling Wildcat buttons, cookbooks, zip code books and selling "goodies" in the concession stand at ball games in order to raise money for the social event of the year, the Prom. Preparing for the Prom was often tedious, but it all seemed worthwhile as the juniors presented their gift to the graduating seniors. While assuming significance as a class, the juniors became important to the school as individuals as members of the varsity basketball team and officers of various organizations.

This year the Class of '70 was led by Tom Heiden, president; Stan Glazier, vice-president; Darla Swanson, secretary; and Sandy Port, treasurer. They were advised by Mr. Pollock and Mr. White.

Sophomores Take Second Step Toward Graduation

Returning to LHS for the second step on the path to graduation, the members of the Class of '71 found the identity which they lacked the year before as freshmen. This year the sophomores became a part of the school. They backed their Wildcat team, they initiated the freshmen, they learned to drive "safely" under the direction of Mr. Small and to increase their treasury they picked up corn.

Leading the sophomores this year were Randy Melton, president; Don Wolf, vice president; Kathy Flatt, secretary; and Denise Stringer, treasurer. Under the able supervision of Sophomore Class advisor, Mrs. Liehr, these officers guided the class through their final year as underclassmen.

LHS Freshman Learn Much

Like most freshman, the Class of '72 missed their cue for "Victory", got lost looking for the English room, forgot their locker combinations, went to the wrong classes, and experienced the "fun" of being initiated. Yet, despite all their mistakes, they learned. They learned about math: about graphs, fractions and negative numbers; they learned about science: about space, matter and time; they learned about people: about friends and teachers—about themselves.

Led by capable officers, Jim Mennenga, president; Steve Porter, vice-president; Bob Tegeler, secretary; and Julie Swanson, treasurer, advisor Mr. Small, the freshman learned to fit into high school life.

The Student Council officers for the 68-69 school year were elected by the LCHS student body in the spring of 68. Under the direction of these officers and their advisor, Mr. Dee, the council proved to be very successful. This year, the council sponsored the best Homecoming Lyndon's ever had, organized a program to point out the pro's and con's concerning the Unit District, and held a mock election. The officers were Mike Glazier; President, Marty Sutton: Vice-President, and Bec Mannon; Secretary-treasurer.

GAA

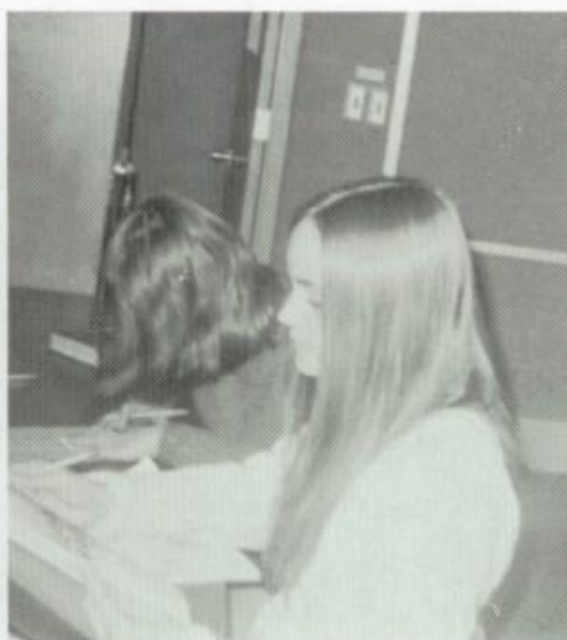

Developing physical fitness and enjoying fun in a variety of activities are the goals of GAA. The year began with a hike to Prophetstown State Park to initiate the new freshmen members. Almost every Thursday after school throughout the year the girls took part in bowling, basketball, volleyball, baseball, or tumbling. The trip to White Pines on May 21, brought the GAA activities to a close. This years GAA was very successful due to the leadership of Mrs. Jim Casson, our advisor.

"68-69 Season"

The varsity had a very successful season. The backbone of the team consisted of Stan Loechel, Mike Glazier, Mel Nance, Tom Heiden, and Russ Damhoff. Stan had the best field goal percentage of the team with 48% of his shots going through the hoop, followed by Mel Nance with 43%. Tom Heiden ended the year with a 63 percentage from the free throw line and Stan Loechel was second with 59%. Mel Nance pulled down a total of 300 rebounds during the year with Stan Loechel aiding Mel with 296 rebounds. Stan compiled a total of 742 points with a 29.6 point per game average followed by Tom Heiden with 333 points. Mike Glazier lead the Wildcats with 69 assists during the 68-69 season. We would all like to congratulate the Wildcats for a job well done.

Homecoming 69

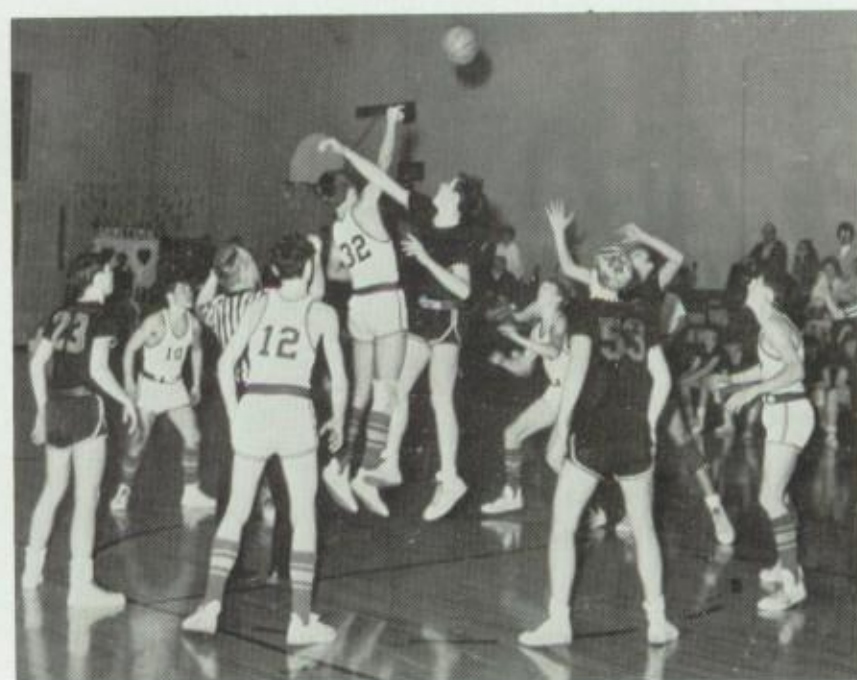

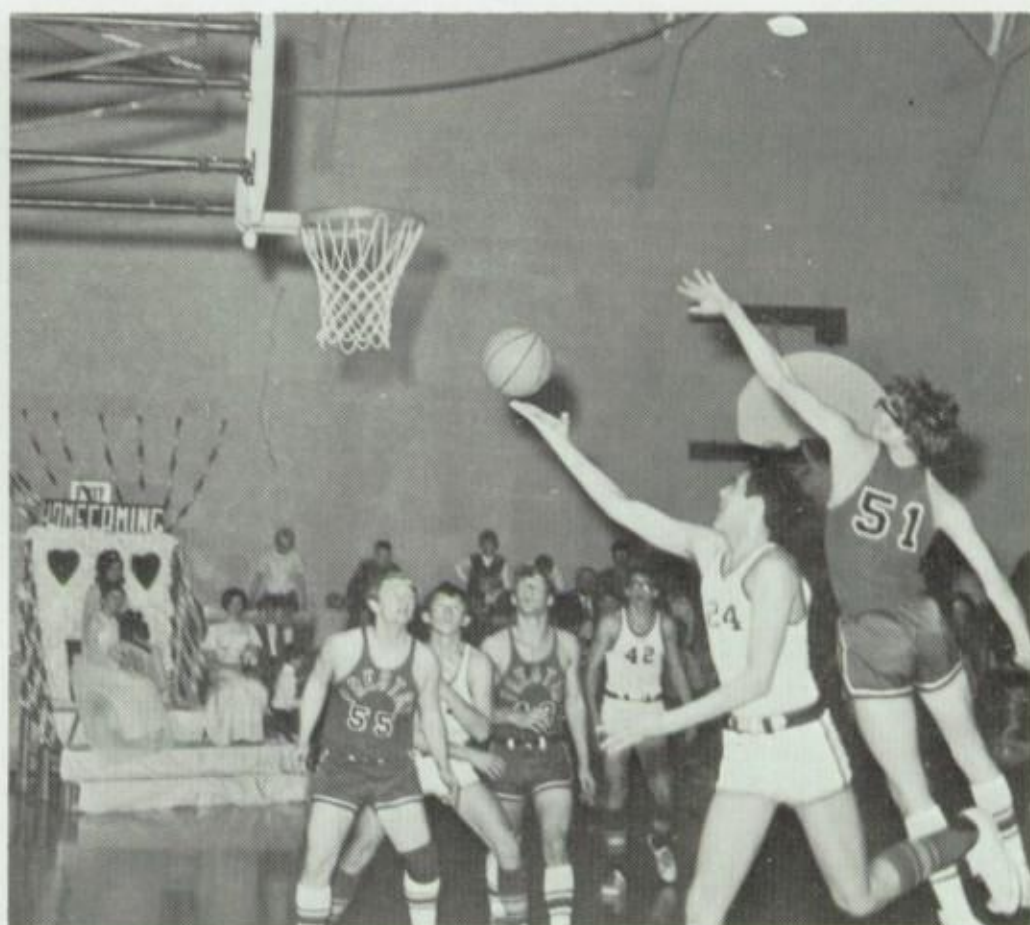

Festivities for the 1969 Homecoming at LCHS began on Thursday night with a snake dance which twisted through town and ended at the school where a pep rally and bonfire were held. The cheerleaders stirred up the spirit while the fire crackled and then went inside to serve refreshments to the student body. These activities were only the beginning. On Friday night, February the 14th, the J.V. squad started the evening off by downing Preston. After the first game a special program was held in which the first graduating class, the class of 1960, and the schools past administrators were honored. The first graduating class was given the key to the school by the class of '69 to lock the doors of LCHS forever.

The Wildcats then took the floor and topped off the evening by chalking up their 16th win of the season, defeating Preston Iowa, 90 to 61.

Ending the three day weekend was the dance held on February 15th in the high school gym. Music was provided by "The Cause for Wonder" and a recognition of the queen and her court was held.

The Student Council sponsored homecoming and deserves a big THANKS for making LCHS's last homecoming it's BEST!!!

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the queen. The candidates, chosen by the student body, were Marty Sutton, Jackie coming '69

Dollinger, and Becky Mannon. Sue Bollman, the 1968 queen, crowned Jackie Dollinger as the 1969 Homecoming queen.

Garden of Friendship

On the evening of May 17, the juniors and seniors journeyed into the "Garden of Friendship" for the 1969 Junior-Senior Prom. With music furnished by My Brother's Soul, the couples danced the evening away under a blue starlit sky. The center of attraction was the sparkling pond filled with goldfish where couples tossed in coins hoping their wishes would come true.

The juniors worked hard on the prom and provided a beautiful evening for all.
